Hello Mr. Gross:

The court's order does not call for a response to our submission regarding fees:

"Defendant is ordered to submit proof of its fees and costs related to both its motion for sanctions and its opposition to class certification within 14 days. Alternatively, the parties can have a discussion about this case and resolve this issue themselves." DE 134.

The opportunity to respond was provided when Midland moved for sanctions. Submission of our fees is not a motion. If Plaintiff wishes to respond to our submission, Plaintiff will have to petition the Court for permission to do so.

As we do not believe that the court expects or requested Plaintiff to respond, Midland will not agree to an extension to do so.

Sincerely,

Matt
